REAPPOINTMENT: Second Year

Procedures for second-year reappointment are stipulated in the Faculty Handbook, Part One, Section VIII. D. 1. a.

1. At the end of the appointee's second year, the department determines whether or not it regards the appointee as a candidate for reappointment, according to departmental procedures and the evaluative criteria set forth in Part One, Article VIII. Section A., with particular emphasis on teaching effectiveness. The department informs the Associate Dean of the Faculty of its decision on or before May 31 of the appointee's second year. In the case of proportional appointments (Part One, Article VI, Section C), each program and/or department involved shall inform the Associate Dean of the Faculty of its decision on or before May 31.
2. By June 15 the Associate Dean of the Faculty reminds appointees not regarded as candidates for reappointment that their service terminates at the end of their third academic year.
3. The candidate has the right of access to, but may not photocopy, the written materials sent to the ADOF by the department. If the appointee believes that the decision against reappointment was based on inadequate consideration of the standards for continued service, the Associate Dean of the Faculty may review the evaluation. If the ADOF finds in favor of the appointee, the case is returned to the department for reconsideration.
4. In a case where the disagreement between the department and the ADOF cannot be resolved, the CAPT will review the candidate's file and make a third recommendation to the DOF/VPAA. This recommendation will be made on, but preferably before, September

Procedures for third-year reappointment are stipulated in the Faculty Handbook, Part One, Section VIII . D. 1. b.

1. If a department regards the appointee as a candidate for reappointment, it must submit its recommendation, positive or negative, with supporting evidence to the ADOF on or before January 15 of the appointee's third year. This evidence must include a cover letter from the chair and letters from full-time faculty and those holding shared appointments in the department or ID program concerned (in the ranks defined in Part One, VI. A and E.2b) who are in at least their third year of full-time service at Skidmore, and (where appropriate) program directors.
2. The ADOF must decide by February 15 whether to recommend to the DOF/VPAA a further three-year contract or termination of the individual's service. The ADOF shall base this recommendation on the evidence submitted by the candidate's department, and on the standards of excellence the ADOF maintains for the faculty as a whole.
3. The ADOF will report reappointment decisions to CAPT by February 15.
4. If a disagreement occurs between the recommendations of the department and the ADOF, CAPT will review the candidate's file and make a third recommendation to the DOF/VPAA by February 25.
5. The DOF/VPAA shall make the decision whether or not to follow the recommendation in all cases presented. The ADOF will communicate the decision to the candidates and their department chairs. The ADOF shall offer further three-year contracts to successful reappointment candidates by March 1.
6. A candidate for reappointment to whom a further three- year contract is not offered in the third year shall receive written notice of a terminal one-year appointment from the ADOF by March 1.

Promotion to this rank shall be granted to faculty who have shown evidence of continuing high-quality teaching (or, in the case of Library faculty, librarianship) as well as sustained and significant creative or scholarly growth; and significant involvement in the affairs of the college. After conducting its deliberations, the CAPT reports its recommendation to the President, the Dean of Faculty and Vice-President for Academic Affairs, and the Associate Dean of the Faculty. The DOF/VPAA then consults with the ADOF and decides upon her/his recommendation, meeting with the CAPT to offer detailed and compelling reasons for any disagreement with the CAPT's recommendation. The DOF/VPAA makes a recommendation to the President, notifying the CAPT of that recommendation. In the rare instance in which the President does not concur with the recommendations of the CAPT, the President meets with the CAPT to offer detailed and compelling reasons for such disagreement. The President's recommendations are reported to the Academic Affairs Committee (AAC) of the Board of Trustees and the CAPT informs the AAC of the recommendations it made to the President.
