CAS ANNUAL REPORT, 20023

Members of CA(Soting)

- Mayuri Roca, Chair, Chemistry
- Kyle Nichols, Geosciences
- Kris Covey, Environmental studies
- Dave DeConno, Registrar
- Michael Arnush, Associate Dean of the Faculty
- Emilka Jansen, SGA student representative, Office of Academic Advising
- Cori Filson,f@ce of O@ampus Study and Exchanges
- Eliza CamirAkey,Office of OCampus Study and Exchanges
- Shannon MelviRegistrar

Regular business

Weeklymeetings were helidring the academic yeadisticusstudents requests for excepsition our established cademic norms. The offices of the registrar, OAA, and rogosted the requests and presented them to CAS behalf of the student. these titios, the committee considered the most beneficial outcome, short and long terms, for students, facuto lege s academic commitment.

End-of-semester Academic Review sessemesheld in January and Jandiscuss the status of students who failed to satisfy minimum continuation standards; students were granted waivers to return theollowingsemesterput on leave for a year, or disqualified from continuing studies at Skidmore.

CAS participated in the Academic Review in May to discuss the academic plans of August graduates

Other businees

Participation the governance committee chairs meeting that met with three DOF/VPAA candidates.

Discussions about honors and grade inflation. It was decided to do not present this data to the fact it may be skewed by to R/B/grading adjustments done during COVID.

Discussion about the minimal continuation standards. Two motions were brough the fine faculty motion askets bet the minimum accured laPA of 2.000 for all students regardless of the number of semesters completed second motion asked to change the number of accumulated credits each semester be a suggestion rather than a requirement. Both venexipping ved.