

ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON OFF-CAMPUS PROGRAMS (ACOP)
Annual Report 2016-2017

The membership of the Advisory Committee on Off-Campus Programs (ACOP) for the 2016-2017 academic year consisted of the following individuals:

Erica Bastres Dukehart, Ph.D. Chair and CEPP Representative
Cori Filsen, Director, OCSE

Note from the Director of OCSE EPP should note that OCSE remains uncomfortable with the size of the membership of ACOP. At its inception, ACOP (then ACIS) consisted of 7 faculty members, representing different disciplinary areas of the College. The committee now consists of two people who discuss as they arise.

research and development opportunities; realizing additional revenue. AGOP and CEPP endorsed the proposal and the faculty voted to approve it in March 2017.

TERMINATION OF SKIDMORE'S PARIS FALL SEMINAR

programs list due to faculty and student interest and we are approaching departments about adding CIEE Seoul. These three programs not only are “repeat” petition programs, they also provide important geographic and disciplinary diversity to the overall approved programs list.

As in the past, the petitions here are those reviewed this year and are for spring 2017 and fall 2017, rather than the current academic year.

ADDITION AND REMOVAL OF APPROVED PROGRAMS

Each year OCSE examines the departmental and overall approved programs with an eye toward adding programs that might enhance a specific department's offerings or removing programs that are problematic or underutilized. We use data regarding student enrollment in each program, major enrollments in each program, and feedback from students and faculty.
